

NINETY-THIRD YEAR.

ST. LOUIS, MO., SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1900.

THE CONTENTS OF THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC SUNDAY MAGAZINE ARE PROTECTED BY COPYRIGHT. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

PRICE.
FIVE CENTS.

THE BEAR
HUNTER.

THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC.
COMIC SECTION.

1. "Shore; them's the tracks of that old she bear comin' away from her den—"

2. "I'll just follow the trail

3. "And see if there's any little cub bears."

4. "Lor! but them's pretty—an' fat. I just lean over a

5. "Farther and see!"

6. "There goes—

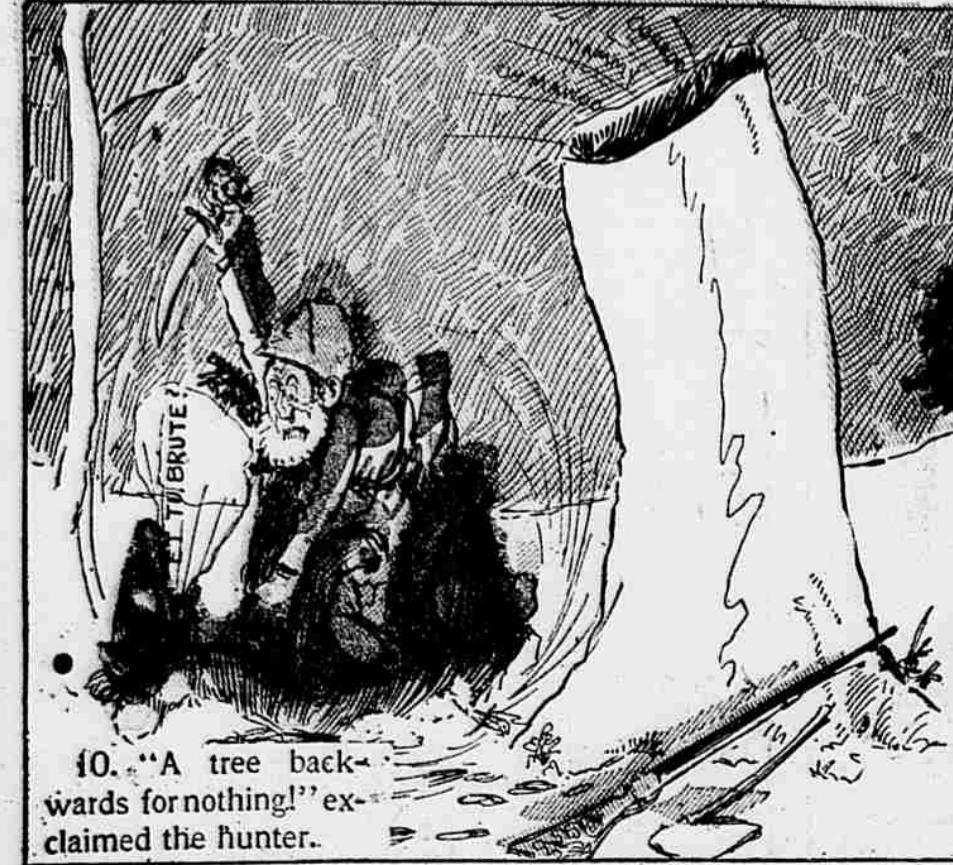

7. "The hunter after my little babies," growled the old mammy bear.

8. !!!

9. "A bear don't come down—

10. "A tree backwards for nothing!" exclaimed the hunter.

11. "Now, I'll cut down the hollow tree---"

12. "And take the little bears home to my kids."